Explanation of language levels

Explanation of levels

Beginner (A1)

Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type.

Elementary (A2)

Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).

Intermediate (B1)

Can converse about day to day topics including those related to work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken.

Upper Intermediate (B2)

Understands the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialization.

Advanced (C1)

Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions.
